SESSIONAL PAPER No. 36a Mr. Bodwell. --You wont agree to give up the union. A Mr. Wilson. --Surely they have the right. Mr. Dunsmuir insists on his right jo do what he pleases with his own property, and they insist on doing what they like with their own person. His Lordship. --Their position would be much more favourably considered by the public if they insisted on joining a Canadian organization which the laws of Canada could in some way control. If they undertake to thrust themselves on an employer as members of a foreign organization, where there is no control, it is a different question. Mr. Rowe. --At the same time I think it should be taken into account that most members of unions are members of an international body. His Lordship, --Their constitutions differ very materially. Witness. --I will tell you what would be the matter with Mr. Dunsmuir. We have been asked to withdraw from the Federation in order to give the Commission a chance to report in connection with the matter, and then the probability was that it would be taken up afterwards. What is the matter with Mr. Dunsmuir giving up his opposition tor that length of time What is the matter with trying that If the Commission find that we are not to be allowed to join a foreign organization, we should have to sever our connection whenever the law was made. In my opinion it would be a very...
