Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Facsimiles of the Creeds, Vol. 36: From Early Manuscripts The task which I have attempted in this book of facsimiles has grown more serious during the past eight years. It sprang from a desire to collect some photographs of early MSS. of the Quicumque uult. While I was puzzling over Cod. Petriburg., Q. i. 15, it was my good fortune to obtain an introduction to Dr. L. Traube. His interest in the photograph led him to write his most suggestive article Perrona Scottorum. Everyone who knew him personally found a fascination in his treatment of the subject of palaeography, which has been too often at the mercy of theorists, who possessed neither his mastery over details nor his sure grasp of principles. He was qualified to be a pioneer in the laying of foundations of what is still a new science. When he consented to write palaeographical notes for this book it entered on a new phase of potential usefulness. Despite increasing weakness he took an interest in it to the end of his life. His heirs and his literary executor, Dr. P. Lehmann, have been most kind in putting at our disposal all his papers which had reference to the subject. In Dr. Traube's own words, palaeographical notes on a collection of photographs made to serve other than palaeographical ends must be something of a tour de force. But many of the MSS. in question are of more than average palaeographical interest, and some of them have not been reproduced in any collection of facsimiles, so it seemed worth while to take the risk of producing a book without much unity from the...
