

The Race: A Hell Ranger Thriller

By Gina Fava

Steepo Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 492 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.2in. x 1.2in. Ah, Rome, The Eternal City in all its majesty: St. Peters Square, the Spanish Steps, the Pantheon, and the Coliseum. Devlin Lucky Lucchesi has made a home here with his pregnant wife, Ella, and his five-year-old son, Marcello. As a car racing champion who has won the hearts of fans across Europe, Devlin has settled into a happy-go-lucky existence. His alter ego as a covert special operative HELL Ranger feels far away. That is, until a terror attack decimates Romes train station, and rips Luckys life apart. To blame is Ishmael Zaid, an elusive international terrorist, and a villain from Devlins past. Devlin vows revenge and he teams with his blood-brother Lupo, the sexy BBC reporter Ana Malia, and his HELL Ranger crew to battle Ishmaels Race of Islamic extremist followers. But, as they rush to diffuse a dozen more bombs set to wipe Rome off the map by midnight, it becomes unclear who is with Lucky, who is against him, and who might be up for sale along the way. The stakes skyrocket when Ishmael kidnaps young Marcello as retribution for a transgression in Devlins...
