Christmas Summary Classics This series contains summary of Classic books such as Emma, Arne, Arabian Nights, Pride and prejudice, Tower of London, Wealth of Nations etc. Each book is specially crafted after reading complete book in less than 30 pages. One who wants to get joy of book reading especially in very less time can go for it. About The Book Charles Reade made his first appearance as an author comparatively late in life. He was the son of an English squire, born at Ipsden on June 8, 1814, and was educated for the Bar, being entered at Lincolns Inn in 1843. His literary career began as dramatist, and it is significant that it was his own wish that the word dramatist should stand first in the description of his works on his tombstone. His maiden effort in stage literature, The Ladies Battle, was produced in 1851; but it was not until November, 1852, with the appearance of Masks and Faces--the story which he afterwards adapted into prose under the title of Peg Woffington--that Reade became famous as a playwright. From 1852 until his death, which occurred on April 11, 1884, Reades life is mainly a catalogue of novels and dramas. Like many of Charles Reades works, Hard Cash, a Matter-of-Fact Romance, is a novel with a purpose, and was written with the object of exposing abuses connected with the lunacy laws and the management of private lunatic asylums. Entitled Very Hard Cash, it first appeared serially in the pages of All the Year Round, then under the editorship of Charles Dickens, and although its success in that form was by no means extraordinary, its popularity on its...
