Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from National Union Celebration at Union Square: September 17, 1866 From the admirable reports in the World, Daily News, Daily Times, Herald and Sun, the following general account of the Celebration is taken. The New York Herald of September 18, says: - Yesterday was a day long to be remembered by every lover of his native land; long to be remembered as the anniversary of that day on which the Federal Constitution was adopted and made the safeguard of republican liberty by our fathers; long to be remembered when the memory of that eventful struggle through which we have just passed, but from which we have not yet entirely recovered, is recalled; for it was the anniversary of the day when McClellan, as his country's champion, beat back the enemy upon the hard fought field of Antietam. The day endeared to us by such recollections will be especially remembered by every citizen of New York devoted to the sacred principles of the Constitution and the Union. It was the occasion for a most decided and...
