By Bhaweshwar Singh

America Star Books, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ChildrenA[a a[s Companion is a compendium of suggestions put forth in the best interest of the growing children across the nations. The author has nicely read the mind of young learners overburdened with vast syllabi and exhaustive homework and established a very good rapport with them through direct communication. His concern for their all round personality development is commendable. The author appears visibly moved by the plight of underprivileged and ill-treated children .He sincerely desires them to be painstaking, industrious and communicative. Quite pertinently, advices nowhere appear didactic. Young guys may hopefully consider the book, essentially a valuable treasure of inspiration and practical tips, as their true companion. Although the book is primarily intended for school children, it is equally readable by the parents, teachers and all stakeholders concerned with the advancement of mental faculties of pre-adolescents. The book deserves special reference while making policies for children by virtue of its merit.
