Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .cultivation to which occasional contact with the faculty exposed him, He learned that the most important thing in life is that the score on November 20 should be 16-0 and not 0-16. And the next most important thing is to get by with a C in at least three out of five courses. He learned what loyalty to an educational institution is, To smoke cigarettes on the bleachers and yell at last practice. He learned that the first and great commandment is, Thou shalt bet on thy teams and refrain from independent thinking and look with a skeptic eye on Phi Beta Kappa. Thus did college instil in George a sense of proportion, A sense of permanent values. So he went out into the world, And he said, I ll lie low till it comes my way, Then I ll show em. And it came his...
