Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Industrial Board of Illinois, Bulletin Number One, Vol. 1: This Issue of the Bulletin Is Devoted Exclusively to Opinions in Cases Arising Under the Workmen s Compensation Act, Decided by the Industrial Board of Illinois, From the Date of Its Organization, July 1, 1913, to July 1, 1915 Section 20 of the Workmen s Compensation Act provides that the Industrial Board of the State of Illinois may prepare and issue such special bulletins and reports from time to time as in the opinion of the board, seems advisable. The following is the first regular bulletin issued from the department since its organization. The effort and time required to prepare and install plans to put in force a law of such far reaching effect as the workmen s compensation act, prevented the getting out of a bulletin at an earlier date. Unfortunately, the earlier legislation of this State on compensation was, in a sense, an experiment, and the appropriations for the purpose so meager, that it was impossible to do more than initiate the reform. This can be understood from the fact that a greater number of industrial accidents occur in Illinois than in any other state in the Union, with the exception of New York. An adjustment between employers and employees of all industrial accidents in a State of well nigh five million people, in a way to properly safeguard the rights and interests of employers and employees, necessarily required a formal system of keeping of records and books, a general supervision over the reporting of accidents and an exercising of authority and supervision over accident insurance, and the establishment of a regular system of...
