Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Think you can t afford to work any less? That s where you re wrong! That s the NUMBER ONE misconception that keep people trapped in the artificial construct and constraints of the five-day, forty-hour workweek. In my book, Is It Wednesday Yet?, you will learn a plan that can have you out of the rat race by this time next year or sooner! You do know what the rat race is, right? Well, just in case you don t let me define it for you: The rat race is the daily grind of the nine to five, eight-hours-a-day, five-day workweek. And you can make your escape without having to get lucky! Get your life back starting today! Imagine, a four-day weekend, every week, for the rest of your working life! If your goal is to achieve a better work/life balance and by better what you mean is less work and more life than you have been able to accommodate within the constraints of the daily grind of nine-to-five, then skip to the chase: Work less! Look, that was where I was in my life -- all work and no play. My job was intense -- I was a Human Resources executive in the Federal Government and my duties included managing the IT, Logistics, Contracting, and Health and Safety functions of the agency where I worked. Years before, I had read two books that changed my life: Cashing In On the American Dream and Your Money or Your Life . These books changed the direction of my life and the way I thought about money. Before reading those books, I thought money was simply a way to fill...
