Five newborns each receive a welcome letter from an ancestor. These are the true stories of the five tribes, as well as glimpses into the past. At the beginning of their lives, they get a sense of their history with the letters. The stories begin in 1878 and end in 2009. How their parents were uprooted in their daily lives under the political, social and economic conditions of the time, they can read about later. You already know. Before his retirement, Johan Geuzendam (1940), wrote texts for college where he worked as a teacher/manager. When he became a grandfather, he began a new life which inspired him to include narratives in his writings.
